

GUINNESS WORLD RECORD

It is a proud moment for all of us as we the prestigious Sankalchand Patel University achieved the world's highest honor by entering into the Guinness World Records titled LARGEST DENTAL HEALTH CHECK An event in the field of Dental Check up took place on 17th Feb 2016 that made a Guinness World Records with the participation of school children numbering 14978 comprising of 51 schools of 11 villages belonging to Visnagar Taluka & Vadnagar Taluka of Mehsana district within a time frame of 7.30 hours. It started at around 8.40AM in the morning till 4.10 PM. Along with the assistance & co-ordination of 125 qualified Dentists & 2500 volunteers by conveyance of 100 buses for conducting the camp with the standard measures of World Health Organization (WHO), exhibited at this event which broke the earlier record of Sri Lanka registering 9334 participants. The event of Dental Health Check record break entering in Guinness Book of Record has been made & Organized successfully by Dynamic Shri. Prakashbhai Patel, President Sankalchand Patel University, formerly Vice-Chairman, Nootan Sarva Vidyalaya Kelavani Mandal, Visnagar Dental College, Gujarat. The event was supervised by the Director of the trust Dr. D. J. Shah. & Dr. Baswaraj Hullale Professor, Department of Orthodontics was the coordinator of the event. It's the proud moment for all of us as the Sankalchand Patel University is the only university in the world to hold this achievement of Guinness world record and India is also proud of it.

